CEO's Message

Human, Nature & Harmony

Dear Hyeum customers,
Welcome and thank you for visiting our website, it is my pleasure to greet you.

Since the foundation of Bo-Kyung Company in 1992, we have strived to promote local development with innovative action and forward thinking in every project to fulfill our objective of being a construction company that works with and is loved by its customers.

The expansion of our business into real estate development has allowed us to supplement construction work due to the division of the corporation with Hyeum.

Today Hyeum strives to create an eco-friendly culture based on our human-oriented corporate nature. We are ready and motivated to lead the green construction culture based on our technical know-how.

Every employees of Hyeum is fully committed to the core values of 'Challenge and Creation, Sacrifice and Cooperation, Thanks and Service'. We are all motivated to do our best to grow both the company and the customer, while observing the honest and clean management philosophy.

In conclusion, our past success and continued progressive future is dependent on you, our customer's support. Thank you for working with us to achieve our mandate of Human, Nature and Harmony and I look forward to continue a mutually successful relationship from now and into a successful harmonious future. I remain.

Best Regards.
